

Information Center

Royal Academy of Science
International Trust

London November 9, 2014

For Immediate Release

Postponing and Changing Venue of the Inauguration of World Women's Health and Development Forum

Dear Valued Participants,

Due to the large number of requests from governments, senior officials, international partners, civil society and multilateral organizations and because of the importance of the World Women's Health and Development Forum and the desired outcomes of the Post-2015 Development Agenda, inauguration of the Forum has been postponed to take place from 11-12 February 2015.

The venue is moved from the United Nations Office in Geneva to the United Nations Headquarters in New York City; giving broader spectrum of Executives at the United Nations and its entities, Intergovernmental Organizations, Governments Representatives, Civil and Professional societies to participate.

Updated invitations and revised Forum documentation will be circulated soon.

The Royal Academy of Science International Trust (RASIT) and the UN Innovation and Development (UNID) wishes to apologize for the late notice, and we look forward to welcoming you in New York City.